Instructions for filing Certificate of Cancellation of a Foreign Limited Liability Company

A limited liability company may file a certificate of cancellation when the company desires to cease doing business in West Virginia. Remember, all filings and payments required by the Department of Tax and Revenue and any other State agency, such as Department of Employment Security or Workers Compensation, must be completed before the company's responsibilities and liabilities to the State are completed.

A company which is dissolved in its home state should immediately complete all filings with other state agencies and file a certificate of cancellation in West Virginia.

CERTIFICATE OF CANCELLATION

Complete all sections of the form.

Section 1. If the name used in West Virginia is a trade name, please list both the name registered in your home state and the trade name used in West Virginia.

Section 2. Enter the address where you can receive correspondence relating to this cancellation.

Section 3. Unless another date is given, the effective date will be the date of filing in our office. Note: The effective date CANNOT be earlier than filing nor LATER than 90 days AFTER filing in the Office of Secretary of State.

Section 4. List a contact person to reach regarding the cancellation. This is optional, however, listing one may help avoid return or rejection of your document if something is wrong.

Section 5. List the name of the person signing the document and the title or capacity in which he/she is signing.

Filing Fee:

Submit $25, payable to the West Virginia Secretary of State and one original application (two if you would like a "filed" stamped copy returned to you) to the address on the top of the application.
