NOTE: Under W. Va. Code 3-1-9, in each non-presidential election year, one male and one female are elected from each county to represent the county to the Delegate District Executive Committee for each multi-county district in which a portion of the county is located. Each county executive committee has authority to fill vacancies in their representation of the district executive committee. After redistricting, the members representing the county to the previous Delegate District Committee continue to represent the county in the appropriate newly constituted multi-county district until the expiration of their terms. If the number of multi-county districts in the county is decreased, the county executive committee shall determine which previously elected members shall represent the county.
