

State Flag of West Virginia

The West Virginia Flag was adopted on January 28, 1864. The image in the center of the flag is called the coat-of-arms and also appears on the State Seal. A ribbon on the flag bears the state motto, "Montani Semper Liberi", or "Mountaineers Are Always Free".